

The Journal OF THE House of Representatives

Number 28

Friday, April 11, 2014

The House was called to order by the Speaker at 12:30 p.m.

Prayer

The following prayer was offered by Rabbi Schneur Z. Oirechman of Chabad of Tallahassee, upon invitation of Rep. Rader:

Almighty God, Master of the Universe, today let us draw inspiration from the life of Rabbi Menachem Schneersohn, the Lubavitcher Rebbe, whose birthday we mark today, the 11th day of the Hebrew month of Nissan. Let us be inspired by his lifetime of outstanding spiritual leadership and by the 4,000 Chabad Jewish community centers worldwide, including 150 in Florida alone. These centers stand today as beacons of light because of his outreaching vision, inspiring Jews and non-Jews alike, to walk and adhere to Your ways. His goal was to make this world a better place, preparing it for the coming of the redemption.

This coming Monday night marks the beginning of Passover, the festival of freedom. Let us remember that freedom does not mean freedom from responsibility, but freedom to fulfill our responsibilities. Almighty God, bless us to always remember the true meaning of freedom. Plants need soil and animals need room to roam in order to experience their freedom. But people experience freedom when they maximize their potential to the fullest. Therefore, bless us that we may always live up to the responsibilities You have entrusted to us—to represent Your world and Your will in this world thus fulfilling the purpose of our existence.

Almighty God, bless the Speaker of the House, Will Weatherford, and the distinguished members of this great body who work tirelessly to achieve responsible freedom for all citizens of our state. Bless them and give them the strength to pass over any challenge, personal or political, and may they succeed in their noble work. Empower them to experience freedom by reaching their fullest potential, to overcome every limitation, and reach the loftiest heights. And bless us all, that we may live to see the redemption of all humanity; the day when all will recognize Your sovereignty, the day we should be free of worry, war, and evil. And may that day come speedily, in our days. Amen.

At the request of Rep. Patronis—

HR 9089—A resolution designating April 2014 as "Parkinson's Disease Awareness Month" in the State of Florida.

WHEREAS, Parkinson's disease is a progressive neurodegenerative condition most commonly characterized by motor symptoms, such as tremor and rigidity, and is accompanied by nonmotor symptoms, such as sleep disturbances and depression, all of which can significantly affect and impede a person's daily activities, and

WHEREAS, Parkinson's disease currently impacts an estimated 1 million people in the United States, and 50,000 to 60,000 new cases are diagnosed in the United States each year, and

WHEREAS, regardless of the age of onset, Parkinson's disease is linked to reduced life expectancy, severe disability, and possible confinement to a wheelchair or bed, and

WHEREAS, although medications are initially effective, many patients experience "wearing off" and develop increasing complications, such as early-morning akinesia, delayed or suboptimal motor response, no motor response, or freezing episodes, and

WHEREAS, as the severity of disease progresses, the task of caring for a Parkinson's disease patient becomes increasingly complex and demanding, often becoming the caregiver's main or almost only activity, and

WHEREAS, because increased awareness and expanded knowledge of the realities of life with Parkinson's disease will allow the community at large to better support people who live with this debilitating condition, the National Parkinson Foundation, the Parkinson's Action Network, the Parkinson's Disease Foundation, The Michael J. Fox Foundation for Parkinson's Research, and The Parkinson Alliance Unity Walk have joined together to promote Parkinson's disease awareness and support, including improved education, knowledge, research, and treatment, and

WHEREAS, these nonprofit organizations are urging patients and their supporters, health care providers, and the public to demonstrate their caring by sharing experiences and facts relating to Parkinson's disease, to increase awareness of the etiology of this disorder and its potential treatments, and to acknowledge its impact on patients' lives in the hope of a better future for people with Parkinson's disease, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Florida:

That April 2014 is designated as "Parkinson's Disease Awareness Month" in the State of Florida, and all citizens are urged to support the search for a cure and assist those individuals and families who struggle daily with this disabling disease.

At the request of Rep. Raulerson—

HR 9091—A resolution designating April 9, 2014, as "Immunization and Bacterial Meningitis Awareness Day" in the State of Florida.

WHEREAS, bacterial meningitis is a deadly, debilitating disease that can affect anyone, but is more common among infants, children, teenagers, young adults, and persons with compromised immune systems, and

WHEREAS, meningococcal disease is the most common cause, and pneumococcal and Hib meningitis are two forms, of bacterial meningitis, an infection of the meninges, the thin lining that surrounds the brain and spinal cord, and

WHEREAS, bacterial meningitis can strike an otherwise healthy person, suddenly and without warning, and can kill or totally debilitate a healthy person within hours, and

WHEREAS, one in 10 persons who contract bacterial meningitis dies, and of those who survive, one in five suffers from long-term complications, including loss of limbs and vision, possible hearing loss, learning and mental disabilities, paralysis, and severe organ damage and seizures, and

WHEREAS, eradication of all vaccine-preventable diseases, especially bacterial meningitis, is an achievable public health objective, and the vaccination of infants, children, teenagers, and adults is an important step in prevention, and

WHEREAS, the designation of April 9, 2014, as "Immunization and Bacterial Meningitis Awareness Day" is an exceptional way to honor the work of the Florida Department of Health, Meningitis Angels across the state and around the nation, the Pinellas Immunization Team for Community Health (PITCH), and the producers and crew of the film "Invisible Threat," which have all contributed to and been instrumental in raising public awareness about bacterial meningitis and the importance of vaccinations while urging citizens to support the search for a cure and assist individuals and families who deal with bacterial meningitis daily, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Florida:

That April 9, 2014, is designated as "Immunization and Bacterial Meningitis Awareness Day" in the State of Florida to honor those who have died or continue to live with the effects of bacterial meningitis and other vaccine-preventable diseases and to encourage all Floridians to work together to educate the public about and eradicate bacterial meningitis and other vaccine-preventable diseases.
